The ICO's statement regarding the Culture, Media and Sport Select Committee's report

A spokesperson for the Information Commissioner's Office said:

"We welcome the Culture, Media and Sport Select Committee's report and will study it carefully. We will continue to educate and inform organisations to help protect the public's personal information, working with those organisations whose databases are most at risk from blaggers. We will not hesitate to take action against those who openly flout the law."
